1 Introduction

This document provides detailed policy related to leave entitlement and rules corresponding leave rules of SIPL Digit Units. It defines the types and quantum of leaves available for employees and lays down a consistent, uniform and well defined leave policy. This policy shall be called the SIPL Digit leave policy effective from January 1st 2024 and shall supersede all previous policies, rules, and/or communications on the subject. The year in policy shall mean the calendar year i.e., 1st January to 31st December.

2 Scope

This policy applies to all permanent employees of SIPL Digit Unit.

3 Responsibility

The responsibility of various people under the policy is as follows

- Employee/Manager to ensure adherence to the policy and its implementation
- Finance department to follow and implement the guidelines

4 Type of Leaves

4.1 Annual Leave

Annual leave (AL) is a leave extended to an employee as a reward for his/her continuous service to the company and to facilitate work-life balance.

The AL entitlement for all employees will be a maximum of 20 days in a calendar year (leave period without pay to be excluded while calculating the leave) .

Rules for availing AL are as follows:

- AL will be credited to employee's account at the beginning of the year (1st January) or at the time of joining on prorata basis until 31st December.
- Annual Leave should be applied at least 15 days in advance.
- AL can be either prefixed or suffixed with holidays, Sick leave as per SIPL approved holiday calendar or weekly off subject to exceptional approval.
- Encashment of AL is available for employees by accumulating to a maximum of 20 Annual leave (AL). Annual Leave accumulated above 20 days will be encashed (maximum of 8 days per year) at the end of leave calendar year.
- Unavailed AL can be carried forward to next year into the "Annual Leave Account". This leave account can contain a maximum of 90 days (revised from 60 to 90 at 10/year for next 3 years) and will be paid to the employee whenever leaving SIPL.

4.2 Sick Leave

Sick leave (SL) is leave extended to an employee during the period of sickness

- The SL entitlement for all employees will be a maximum of 12 days in a calendar year.
- SL will be credited to employee's account at the beginning of the year or at the time of joining whichever is later.
- Sick Leave for more than 3 consecutive days, the employee has to submit medical certificate/associated prescription to concerned department manager.
- SL can be clubbed with Annual Leave with prior approval.
- Unavailed SL can be carried forward to the next year, up to a balance of 30 days.
- Unavailed SL will never be encashable.

4.3 Casual Leave

Casual Leave (CL) is leave extended to an employee during the period of working with SIPL

- The CL entitlement for all employees will be 12 days in a calendar year.
- A maximum of two consecutive working days of Casual Leave can be availed at a time. CL can either be prefixed or suffixed with weekends (Sundays or Saturdays or declared holidays) but not both.
- Unavailed CL if any shall lapse on December 31st and unavailed CL cannot be encashed.
